

Bob Saul joins the Fiera Comox team

/NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION TO U.S. NEWS WIRE SERVICES OR DISSEMINATION IN THE UNITED STATES/

Montreal, November 29, 2017 – It is with great pleasure that Fiera Comox is announcing the arrival of Bob Saul as Partner, Agriculture. Bob will be primarily responsible for sourcing and overseeing our agriculture investments in the United States, where he has developed a deep network of partners in a wide range of agriculture sectors.

Bob has more than twenty years of direct investment experience in the agriculture and forestry asset class in the United States and Central America. Bob has managed some of the largest portfolios of farmland and timberland globally and was responsible for more than $3 Billion in land-based transactions. He successfully oversaw investments in several agriculture sectors, including citrus, maple syrup production, grazing land to row crop conversion, water resource development, hardwood and softwood plantation establishment, mitigation banking, and seed development. Bob was one of the founding members of GMO Renewable Resources in 1997 where he played a leading role for more than 15 years building a 2 million-acre timber and row crop portfolio located primarily in the United States.

He received a Master in Public Policy from Harvard's Kennedy School of Government and is a graduate of Amherst College. Bob has also owned and managed his own 220-acre farm in Amherst, Massachusetts for 27 years.
