

Fiera Comox Appoints Stéphanie Lachance as Head of Sustainable Investment

February 9, 2022 – Fiera Comox Partners, a global alternative investment manager, with C$1.7B in assets under management as of December 31, 2021 is pleased to announce that Stéphanie Lachance is joining the firm as Head of Sustainable Investment. She will lead the Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) and sustainability efforts at Fiera Comox and will also serve as an active member of Fiera Capital’s Global ESG Committee.

“Stéphanie is an ESG pioneer within the institutional investment world and she will be a significant asset to Fiera Comox,” said Antoine Bisson-McLernon, Partner and CEO, Fiera Comox. “She has shaped global ESG practices in agriculture investing, private equity and private credit at one of the world’s largest institutional investors, and we are thrilled to have her on board to help us further structure and build on our current efforts.”

Stéphanie brings fifteen years of responsible investing experience to our organization. A lawyer by training, she most recently served as Managing Director and Head of Responsible Investment at PSP Investment, where she built and led the responsible investment practice. Stéphanie also sits on various boards and committees, where she contributes her expertise and facilitates discussions about ESG and sustainability internationally. Stéphanie namely sits on the independent review committee on accounting standard setting currently conducting a review of the governance and structure for establishing accounting and sustainability standards in Canada.

“The demand and need for sustainable and responsible investment options is growing exponentially, and Fiera Comox has made it a priority. I am pleased to be joining the firm and their seasoned team of professionals to support their ambitions and sustainable investment strategy,” said Stéphanie Lachance.
